Killing Pulled Off Wish The Iristinan - Lady Amelia Barely Beats Rose of Dawn -Humo, Lella and Rester W. Take the Other Races at the Spa Track.

SARATOGA, Aug. 4 .- August Belmort's Lord of the Vale proved a surprise in the handicap for all ages, one mile and an eighth, to-day. th 124 pounds on his back he did not appeal the talent, who made Au Revoir an odds favorite at 3 to 5, with Mr. Belmont's horse Seted at the liberal price of 3 to 1. R. E. watkins's St. Bellane went'up to 5 to 1, while Judge Himes was not reckoned with at all.
O'Neill took Lord of the Vale to the front as soon as Mars Cassidy sent the small field away, the Hastings horse showing all of his old early speed, which he maintained to the end, winning by three lengths in 1:54 1-5. Au end, winning by three lengths in 150 1-2. Au Revoir, with Knapp in the saddle, began slowly, but closed with a rush and nailed the place from St. Bellane by three parts of a length. Judge Himes quit as soon as Wishard let him

There was something of a killing pulled off in the second race with Frank Kelly's colt, The Irishman, by Hamburg—Ballyhoo. He was backed from 10 to 1 to sixes and Knapp had the leg up. Sydney Paget's Kinleydale was the favorite at 11 to 5, while Athlete, Sidney F. and Kiamesha II. were also in de-mand. Toots Mook, a filly owned by the Tippah Farm stable, set a fast pace for five furlongs. But The Irishman was always in attendance, and when Toots Mook quit, the Hamburg colt was put under a drive to win y a neck from Kinleydale, who, as usual, was if poorly, only to make a great bid for victory in the run nome. Rubaiyat, 15 to 1, a Western coft, was third, five lengths back and half length in front of Toots Mook. The time

Lady Amelia, with top weight and a 2 to 1 favorite, made good in the handicap for mares of all ages, six furlongs, by leading all the way and winning in a drive by a neck from H. B. Duryea's Rose of Dawn, 5 to 1. The latter would have won in a lew more strides, but as it was she beat Andrew Miller's Incantation, 13 to 5, second choice, by a neck.
Ascension looked dangerous at the last furlong nole, but stopped. There was no excuse for Schulamite, who was backed down to 5 to 1. The race was run in the fast time Humo, the favorite in the third race, for of 1:12 4-5.

Humo, the favorite in the third race, for three year-olds, one mile, won in hand all the way. When Fountain let him down he went to the front readily, and won easily by a length from Lady Ellison, 5 to 1. Bellindian, 30 to 1. took third money. The Gadfly was interfered with soon after the start, but made up the lost ground and came in fourth. Lineal went well for a half a sille. The time was 1:41.

S. S. Brown's Ascot Belle, the favorite in the fifth race, at a mile and three-sixteenths, had no speed and pever was a factor. Hippocrates, 3 to 1, inside the pace for more, than a mile, where he gave way so Lella, 5 to 2, who won easily by a length in 2:91 2-5. Hippocrates had three lengths over Gray Lad, a 50 to 1 shot, who ran to his best form.

Hester W. 11 to 5 favorite, after assuming a commanding lead in the tast race, for maiden two-year-old fillies and geldings, at 5½ furlongs, began to fire in the stretch, but McDaniel drove her home a winner by a head over F. R. Hitchcock's Bauble, 5 to 1. John E. Madden's Dodina, 8 to 1, was third, three lengths back. Tolanda, well played at threes, stopped in the last furlong. The time was 1:083-5. Three favorites and three second choices rewarded the form players. The summaries:

TROTTER DROPS DEAD IN RACE. King Rock Provides Sensation at Readville Meet.

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 4.—Aside from some excitement over the dropping dead of King Rock in the first heat of the 2:21 trot, this afternoon's racing here was rather tame. Only about 1,000 spectators were present, presumably because no selling of pools was allowed. The gelding was rounding the turn for the homestretch and was closing up rapidly to Lizzie G., when suddenly he collapsed on the track. Driver Palmer took caped unharmed. King Rock was a bay geld-Readville sale last May by C. C. Abbost of Keene, N. H., for $1,350. This was the gelding's first season on the track. He was raced in the recent Saugus meeting.

All three of the regular events on the card were won in straight heats and the winners were not given any hard work to do. race Kellar, b. m., by Anderson Wilkes (Cox) 1 1 con Russell, b. s. (Howell) 2 2 comise, bik. g. (Cusick) 3 8

Agents time, testime, to be bess 2:2844 ... Mho Vicidi to Pleading of Bay Shore Horse Show Officials-Four Blues for Jordan.

BAY SHORE, Aug. 4. The feelings of the committee in charge of the horse show which had its second day's competitions here to-day were greatly relieved when Mrs. John Gerker yielded to solicitation and agreed to let her entries take part. Mrs. Gerken withdrew from the closing classes yesterday afternoon because she was highly displeased at the decisions of the judges. But the committee pleaded earnestly all evening, and to good effect. The Gerken horses were shown in the classes in which they were entered and one first prize fell to them.

Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor, as on the opening day, won a majority of the prizes offered. No less than seven fell to her, of which two were firsts. Alfred \anderbilt added only one more to his list, but his was a splendid victory. with a team of four bays in the coach class The Jordan stable showed strongly, expert driving earning four blues.

An exciting episode took place in the pony class when Dorothy Hubbs, mounted on the gray gelding Jupiter, fell from the horse. Dorothy is a little girl in short dresses who rode astride. She lost her head when the horse turned awkwardly at the top of the stretch and got rather a nasty fall. All it did, however, was to jar her thoroughly. She was able to raise a refreshing cry, which assured those about that her lungs were not affected by the shock to her nervous system.

assured those about that her lines were not affected by the shock to her nervous system. In the four-in-hand class for park teams there were four competitors. Aifred Vanderbilt drove the Oakland Farm's entry, while Mr. Grosvenor handled the reins for his wife's entry. J. Campbell' Thompson had the whip for C. W. Watson and Mr. Jordan's superintendent displayed his four. The Vanderbilt bays were handled well by their owner, but his reinsmanship was in no way better than that of Mr. Jordan's driver. The Oakland Farm's four won on clean superiority of contour, action and manners. Miss Electa Havemeyer had a successful entry in Katy Did in the class for polo ponies. Practice in wheeling and darting in and out between stakes and in starting and dashing for a polo ball, to be struck by the mailet of the rider first to reach it, were the things required. The results:

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR SARATOGA. Fine Fields Named for the Special and the Travers.

SARATOGA, Aug. 4.-The rich Saratog Special, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, will be run to-morrow and will excite widespread interest. Willie Shields's Oaklawn, an invincible colt early in the season, who had had a long rest and has also received a special "prep" for this event, is son, who had had a long reet and has also received a special "prep" for this event, is in high favor. But he will meet a formid-able lot of youngsters, including F. R. Hitch-cock's Tangle, S. S. Brown's Accountant, H. P. Whitney's Ironsides and Battleax, James R. Keene's Kuroki, John Sanford's Mohawk II., W. M. Scheftel's Blair Athol, H. B. Duryea's McKittredge, R. T. Wilson, Jr's, Bill Phillips and P. H. McCarren's Voor-

For the Travers Stakes, at a mile and a quarter, some good three-year-olds have been named, including Merry Lark, Glenecho and Woodsaw, who must concede weight to Dandelion, Von Tromp, Sparkling Star and others. In the North American Steeplechase Coligny, Sandhurst and Jimmy Lane look the best. Monsieur Beaucaire has top weight in the handicap at a mile, with Prince Ham-burg, St. Valentine, Blandy, Wotan, Ga-mara and Goldsmith to beat. In the first mara and Goldsmith to beat. In the first race, at seven furlongs, Joeund, Mad Mul-lah, Greencrest and Goldsmith seem the best. The fifth event is for platers at a mile and a furlong, Uncle Urigh, Greencrest and Paim Tree being the probable factors. The en-tries follow:

GATES AND DRAKE PLUNGING.

WESTERNERS WAGER $80,000 ON SARATOGA RACES.

Au Revoir and Robador Poor Investments for Gates-Esoterie a Victim of Blood Disease at the Spa-W. Shields's Oaklawn Favorite for the Saratoga Special.

SARATOGA, Aug. 4.—The gambling microbe crept into the veins of John W. Gates and John A. Drake to-day, and these two Western plungers specuated heavily on the various races here this afternoon. They threw to the winds all caution and forgot for the time being winds all caution and forgot for the time being that they had been asked to invest lightly on the chances of the horses. In several events they indulged to the full bent their natural desire to be theavily. Before the day, was over these two men had wagered $80,000 between them. Just how they made out is not positively known. The reports on the subject vary. Some of the bookmakers said that the plungers lost, while others asserted that they had evened up the scores with the layers. they had evened up the scores with the layers before the last race was decided.

Of the two men Gates bet the most money. He wagered $25,000 on Au Revoir to win the fourth race, and sawhis money remain in the hands of Billy Cowen, who accepted the bet. Lord of the Vale beat Au Revoir easily. The latter ran a wretched race, never at any time displaying the least trace of his former good condition. Previous to this loss of $25,000 Gates had invested $20,000 on the chance that Robador would finish third. Cowen also accepted this bet. Like Au Revoir, Robador was badly afflicted with the slows and failed to finish inside of the money.

Drake and Gates were divided in regard to the best bet in the third race, and while the latter backed Robador the former played the latter backed Robador the former played Humo, who won easily.

In the fifth race both Gates and Drake were a unit that Lella would win. They both plunged on her heavily. Drake was a winner up to this period, but Gates was a loser. The former was simply betting to increase his winnings while the latter was trying to even up his score with the bookmakers. The filly won in a driving finish by half a length from Hippocrates, and Drake had increased his store of wealth by many had increased his store of wealth by many thousands of dollars. Gates also landed a have as good a chance to win the big race as any other eligible.

There appears to be an epidemic of blood disease among the horses here. Many of the horses belonging to Mr. Cotton are laid up from it, and there is searcely a stable that can show a clean bill of health. The disease has proved to be contagious, not only to the thoroughbreds, but to the human beings who attend them. One or two of the men in Mr. Cotton's stable were affected with the disease caused by contact with the horses which they took care of.

Elmer L. Smith, one of the charter members of the Metropolitan Turf Association, the bookmakers' organization, died on Thursday at Narragansett Pier. He had been sick only a short time. Some time ago Smith sold his seat in the Mets, and at the time of his death he was not a member. He had been in poor health for several seasons and did not operate in the ring for that reason.

The jockeys who will ride in the rich Saratoga Special to-morrow and their mounts are: Oaklawn, Burns; Kuroki, MoDaniel; Tangle, Dugan; McKittredge, Shaw; Bill Phillips, Buchanan; Voorhees, O'Neil; Mohawk H., Redfern; Ironsides, Hildebrand; Battleaxe, Knapp; Accountant, J. Martin, and Blair Athol, Lyne.

Oaklawn is a slight favorite to-night for the big two-year-old, event. This big colt has not been raced in nearly two months, but that he is in perfect physical condition was made evident in his tral on Thursday, He worked half a mile in 47% seconds and the five furlongs pulled up in 102. It is the opinion of the majority of the horsemen that he has the best chance for first money, which will amount to about $15,000 and the gold cup, worth $2,500. His most dangerous opponents are the Whitney pair, Battleaxe and Ironsides, and Capt. S. Brown's Accountant.

John E. Madden found picking winners a hard matter this afternoon. He lost several big bets up to the last race. In this event he started his two-year-old filly Dodina. Madden thought he had a good chance for therecand betso heavily on her that he drove the odds from 20 to 1 do Fountain straightened her out in the homestretch she came very fast and finished third.

A. L. Aste, the terror of the selling race horse owners, was in a quiet mood this afternoon and failed to bid up any horses, althought two winners, Humo and Lella, were entered to be sold at cheap figures. Humo when in perfect physical vondition is a good racehorse, and as he was entered to be sold for $2,000 he is considered a bargalu. Not a bid, however, was offered for him. It was expected that Aste would make a bid on Lella, as his horse Hippocrates finished ascond to her, much to the disappointment and surprise of the big crowd that gathered around the stewards' stand waiting for Aste to boost Lella up from $1,000. He failed to pit in an appearance, and she was knocked down to her owner, C. F. Clark, at the entered selling price. Aste has now a big stable of horses and will probably remain quiet in the selling race warfare until two or three of his horses are either bid up or claimed from him.

August Belmont, in riding breeches and leggings, paid a visit to the paddock while his horse Lord of the Vale was being saddled for the fourth race. He held a long conversation with his trainer, A. J. Joyner, on the subject of his horse's chances. Lord of the Vale over Au Revoir was therefore particular pets of Mr. Belmont. The success of Lord of the Vale over Au Revoir was therefore particularly pleasing to him.

The irishman, who won the second race, was every lucky to earn the decision. There was considerable crowding in, this race. Kinleydale the favorite, suffered many times from interference and three-eighths of a mile from the finish he was so far behind the leaders that it did not seem possible that he would earn any part of the money. Once freed from entanglements, however, he displayed a brilliant burset of speed and finished so resolutely that he caught and passed all but The trishman. He failed to get up in time to beat the latter, being just at his throatlatch as they passed the winning post.

METROPOLITAN LEAGUE LEADS ENGLISH TEAM BY 1 RUN.

British Ambassador and Lord Harris

Among the Enthusiastic Speciators on Staten Island Grounds—Visitors Unable to Master M. R. Cobb's Good Bowling. In the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd of cricketers and their friends the match between the Marylebone C. C. team and the Metropolitan League began yesterday on Staten Island. Among the spectators during the afternoon were the British Ambassador, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, and Lord Harris, the famous English cricketer, every way. The play itself so far has produced one of the closest matches ever played by a visiting team in New York. After each eleven has had its first innings but a single run separates their totals, for New York has scored 96 to the visitors 95. The result of the game will now depend altogether on the play to-day. Marylebone may be considered to have an advantage in batting first, but the wicket is more in favor of the bowlers than batsmen and should not get worse as the game goe

The bowlers had things pretty much their own way yesterday and there was no stand made which could be called a very productive partnership. A. G. Laurie and C. A. Worm put on 39 runs for the Metropolitan League after four wickets had fallen for 27 and A. S. Durrant and F. F. Kelly raised the score from 71 to 96 for the last wicket, and thes were the best efforts. The feature of the play was undoubtedly M. R. Cobb's bowling. None of the Englishmen could master his delivery and he was credited with 6 wickets for 46 runs. C. A. Worm also both bowled and fielded splendidly, while H. C. McDonell did the best work for the Englishmen with did the best work for the Engisemen with 4 wickets for 18 runs. Marylebone, having won the toss, play began at 12:15, with R. T. Godsell and C. H. Eyre facing the attack of M. R. Cobb and C. A. Worm. Both bowlers began well and runs seemed hard to get, so that the play for the first fifteen minutes was slow. Worm should have been credited with Eyre's wicket with the latter's score at 2 from a catch to Durrant in the slips. In the same over R. T. Godsell was caught and bewied by Worm and the first wicket was down for 9.

H. J. Wyld filled the vacancy, but immediately lost Eyre, who was bowled on the next ball from Cobb. H. C. McDonell got a nice snick to leg for 4 off Worm, but was then bowled off his pads with the telegraph registering 18-3-4.

E. W. Mann, the Marylebone captain, be

Sincess crowned the enoris of the latter, for with the score at 55 Napier was caught at the wickets by Hurditch off Cobb, and the innings was over for an unexpectedly low score.

New York lost little time in getting its men to the wickets, opening with J. F. Curran and E. H. L. Steinthal. G. G. Napier and F. A. Henley had charge of the attack. Both these men are speedy, especially the latter, who did not fail to send down many short pitched bedis for catches in the slips where he had four men bunched while a fifth was placed on the boundary. With the score at 10, Curran was bowled by a beautiful ball from Henley which just disturbed the balls. J. L. Poyer then joined Steinthal, who was still batting well and confidently and securing the majority of the runs made. Poyer's stay at the wicket, however, was short, he being caught in the slips with the score at 26, by E. W. Mann. H. C. Smart, the next man, lasted but two balls, being bowled by Henley. The score now was 27. A. G. Laurie now came to the batand started off with a beautiful drive for 2 off Henley. Both batters then settled down to steady work and the score gradually rose to 84. At this point a ten minutes interval was taken, while both teams had tea.

When play was resumed, K. O. Hunter went on to bowl in place of Henley, and Napier gave way to H. C. McDonell. Worm lasted but a few balls after the change of bowlers, and was out 1. b. w. for the very creditable score of 26. With the score standing 66 for 5 wickets. CLOSE POLO GAME. New Haven Freebooters Beat Squadren A by Three-quarters of a Goal. NARRAGANSETT, R. I., Aug. 4 .- In the final match for the freshman cups to-day in the Point Judith Country Club polo tourna-ment at Wild Field Farm the New Haven Freebooters defeated Squadron A by a score of 5 to 414. The match was closely con-tested from the start, and both fours fought hard to win. There was a large attendance.

In the third period Louis E. Stoddard of the Freebooters was thrown from his pony, but luckily escaped unhurt. The last period was most exciting. Paul Rainey of the Freebooters distinguished himself by his clever drives across the field and dashing play and R. C. Lawrence proved a good back for Squadron A. J. H. Hunt of Squadron A received a severe gash over his right eye in this period from a polo mallet, in the midst of a scrimmage to gain possession of the ball. He continued riding, however, until the gong sounded at the end of the period. the Freebooters was thrown from his pony,

the play, brought Elberfeld around in the seventh.
Yeager thwarted St. Louis scoring in the fourth by a great catch of Wallace's screaming liner, but in the fifth the Browns scored twice on a force, Williams's fumble and Fultz's error on Frisk's single. Stone's three bagger and Roth's prod to center in the ninth earned the Browns' third excursion home.

won out finally, but the littsburg boys knew there had been trouble. Hillebrand and Lynch each had a turn for Pittsburg, while Ames and Taylor were shown for New York. Ames and Hillebrand were the pitchers lifted. New York got away first, scoring two in the second inning, but this did not seem to bother Pittsburg, who came clattering along with two of her own in her half of this inning. In the third Pittsburg made two more, and in the tifth three, making seven all told, which seemed enough, as New York did not seem to be doing much. They managed to pull another run over in the fifth, and in the sixth Ames was lifted. The eighth opened apparently all to the good for Pittsburg, with the score 7 to 3. Hillebrand, however, had shot his bolt and down he went. He filled the bases with none out, and Lynch, who came to the rescue, hit the first batsman, forcing in a run. This looked bad for Pittsburg, as the bases were filled and still none out; but after allowing one more run Lynch tightened up and stopped the scoring. He distinguished himself in the minth by striking out Bowerman, Donlin and McGann. The score:
